

TRILATERAL SEMINAR

ICT COMPETITION AND CYBER SECURITY IN THE 21ST CENTURY GEOPOLITICS

OCTOBER 24, 2024, 17:30-19:00

GOETHE UNIVERSITY FRANKFURT

CASINO-GEBÄUDE, ROOM 1.801

As emerging technologies become pivotal elements of 21st-century geopolitics, inter-state competition in the Information and Communication Technology (ICT) sector is intensifying, and cybersecurity is assuming greater significance. This panel aims to explore how we should understand technological competition in the ICT and cyber domains within the context of contemporary geopolitics. Furthermore, it will examine the cybersecurity landscapes and response strategies of Europe, Asia, and the United States.

Trilateral Seminar Series

The Consulates General of Japan, Korea, and the United States in Frankfurt are co-hosting a public seminar featuring experts who will discuss their respective countries' perspectives and policies on current global issues and areas of mutual interest. A seminar on cybersecurity will be held on October 24, followed by a seminar on global supply chains and de-risking on November 18.
